TENTATIVE CALENDAR ORDER

No. 23-1351, Maryland Shall Issue, Inc. v. Anne Arundel County
Maryland
1:22-cv-00865-SAG

This case is tentatively calendared for in-person oral argument during the 12/5/2023 - 12/8/2023, oral argument session in Richmond, Virginia.

Any motions that would affect the scheduling of argument, including motions to submit on the briefs, must be filed by 09/20/2023, or counsel must show that relief could not have been requested by that date. Motions must state whether opposing counsel consents to the requested relief.

Any conflicts that would affect the scheduling of argument and any additional cases counsel is tentatively scheduled to argue during this session must be identified by filing a Notice Regarding Conflict with Proposed Argument Dates (form available at www.ca4.uscourts.gov/court-form-fees) by 09/20/2023. The form should not be filed if counsel is available throughout the session and is arguing this case only.

Counsel shall file 4 paper copies of their briefs and appendices within 7 days. The paper copy requirement applies to any briefs and appendices filed by counsel but not to pro se briefs. Paper copies must be identical as to cover, binding, page numbering, and formatting must match the electronic copy, and must comply with the Fourth Circuit Brief and Appendix Requirements. No ECF entry is made by counsel when filing paper copies of previously filed briefs and appendices.

Counsel will be notified either that the case has been scheduled for a date certain during the session or continued to the next available session. The identity of the panel hearing a case is not disclosed until the morning of argument.

For questions regarding scheduling of argument, please call 804-916-2714. For questions regarding required copies of briefs and appendices, please call 804-916-2700.
